A diagram illustrating the dependencies of the source file `huer_model/huer_model.c`. The source file is represented by a gray rectangular box at the top. Five dark blue arrows point downwards from the bottom of this box to five separate white rectangular boxes arranged horizontally below it. Each box contains the name of a standard C header file: `assert.h`, `math.h`, `stdio.h`, `stdlib.h`, and `stdint.h`.
